

A black and white photograph of a woman with long dark hair, wearing glasses and a patterned top with a backpack. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is blurred, showing what appears to be an office or public space.

Sharing good practice

Resources and learning to support individual employers

Date
20 November
2019

Time
10.30-15.45

Venue
Cathedral View,
London

If you're an individual employer, or work in an organisation that supports them, our free event will share local news and initiatives, and keep you up-to-date with the latest best practice.

The event will include presentations from:

- Independent Lives – updates on practical and legal issues facing individual employers, such as pensions and sleep-ins
- Think Local Act Personal – sharing new guidance around support planning and pre-payment cards, and an update on the 'Making it Real' framework
- NHS England and NHS Improvement – sharing the results of the Personal Health Budget (PHB) and Integrated Personal Budget survey, and practical applications of PHBs
- Andrew Walker, Individual Employer – talking about his experience of being an individual employer including his advice around recruitment and management
- Skills for Care - update about the latest research, resources and funding opportunities.

Find out more and book your place: www.skillsforcare.org.uk/IEevents